Emily Leranth NBHW

PUGS

PIC OF PUG

PERSONALITY

Pugs are loving, charming, and sometimes mischievous. pugs are very social dogs. They love to play and be with other dogs and people. Pugs are easy to train and are very loving!

PHYSICAL/HEALTH

pugs definitly have problems with obesity and that is why they need to be more active. At least having multiple short sessions outside can impact a pugs health. pugs definitly need their exercise.

FAMOUS PUGS

1. Doug (@itsdougthepug) 3.8 million followers
2. Jeremy Veach (@jeremyveach) 287,000 followers
3. Sissy, Tilly, and Natty (@pugdashians) 165,000 followers

FOOD & DIET

pugs do well on high quality food whether home made or store bought. But pugs live to eat and are prone to obesity. That is why owners should watch their pugs calorie intake & weight level. Making sure your pug is on a healthy diet is very important!

AVERAGES

HEIGHT: 10-13 in

WEIGHT: 14-18 lbs

LIFE EXPECTANCY: 13-15 years

FUN FACTS:

- The pugs is one of the most ancient dog breed. It has been known to be around since 400 BC.
- Authorities agree the pug is of chinese origin.
- pug is based on the latin word pugnus. It means fist. Some believe pugs look like a fist.
- The pug is the official dog of the House of Orange in Holland.